Yasumiya North Parking Lot Winter Operation Trial

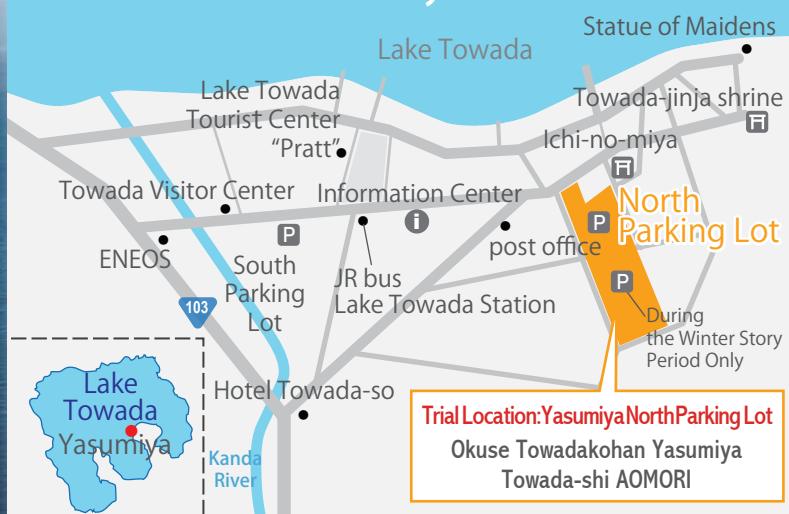

Previously, the Yasumiya North Parking Lot was closed during winter except during event periods.

In recent years, the number of winter visitors has been increasing. To enhance the acceptance environment, we are conducting a social experiment involving the winter operation of the North Parking Lot.

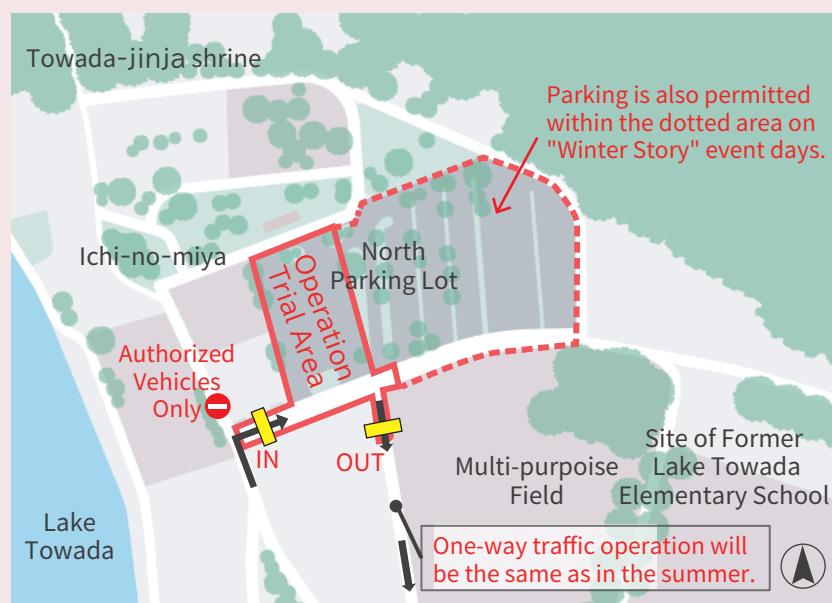

During the experimental period, we aim to understand the number of users, management costs, and challenges associated with a mechanical gate system (unmanned operation), and use this information to consider future parking lot operations.

We kindly ask for your understanding and cooperation regarding this initiative, which is a first step toward pioneering winter tourism at Lake Towada.
